

Art and culture for managers

Seminar objective

In this seminar you'll get a concise and academically well-founded introduction on the topics fine arts, literature and music. You will gain an initial insight into the different facets of art and culture, encounter differing creative approaches and have some extraordinary experiences along the way. The aim is to give you new inspiration and ideas for your communicative behaviour drawn from an artistic and cultural point of view. The newly gained knowledge can flow into discussions with your business partners, which leads to a long-term improvement in your personal reputation and the reputation of your company.

The Management Institute Dr. A. Kitzmann is organizing this event in cooperation with the ART4Business Institute in Münster.
